GLOUCESTER HIGH SCHOOL--GLOUCESTER, VIRGINIA

THE CAVALIER

XV EDITION

EDITED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1968

G.H.S. Is Growth

Education is an experience in which growth is a prime factor. Gloucester High School is a living, growing organism. Each of its students is also developing and maturing. This growth begins when we first enter G.H.S. as small, struggling eighth graders, but it does not end when, as seniors, we solemnly march to GOD OF OUR FATHERS for the last time. Growth has become a part of us. The Cavalier Staff of 1968 has tried to capture by word and picture the events and experiences that nourish such growth.

LEFT: Mr. Conner gives last minute instructions to some band members before the half-time performance.

BELOW: The G. H. S. Homecoming Court and escorts at their place of honor on the sideline.

LEFT: Another day ends as the students of G. H. S. hurry to the waiting buses.

ABOVE: Last summer the library's facilities were enlarged. This was emphasized during National Book Week.

Development Is

Danny and the Delnotes swing into action at the Homecoming Dance.

Ricky Smith assists Jackie Sterling with an assignment in the new drafting department.

Victory is the cry of the spirited J. V. cheerleaders!

Influenced By . . .

Karen and Joan cheer the mighty Dukes on to another victory!

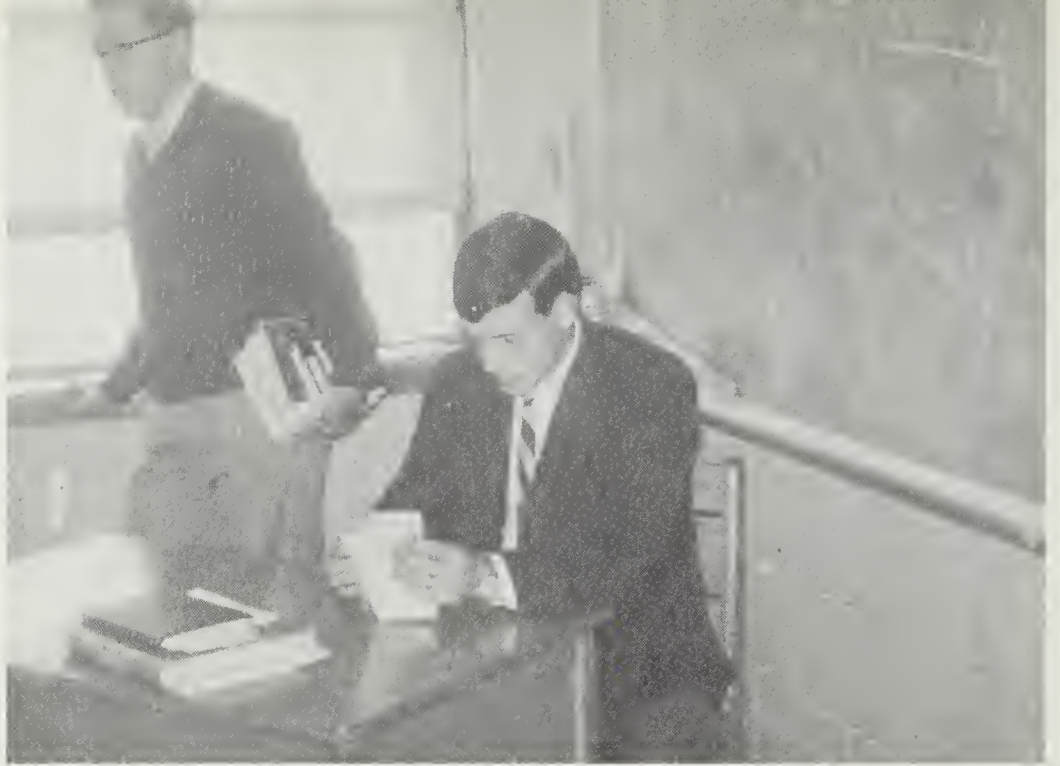

"Now hear this, now hear this--this is your leader."

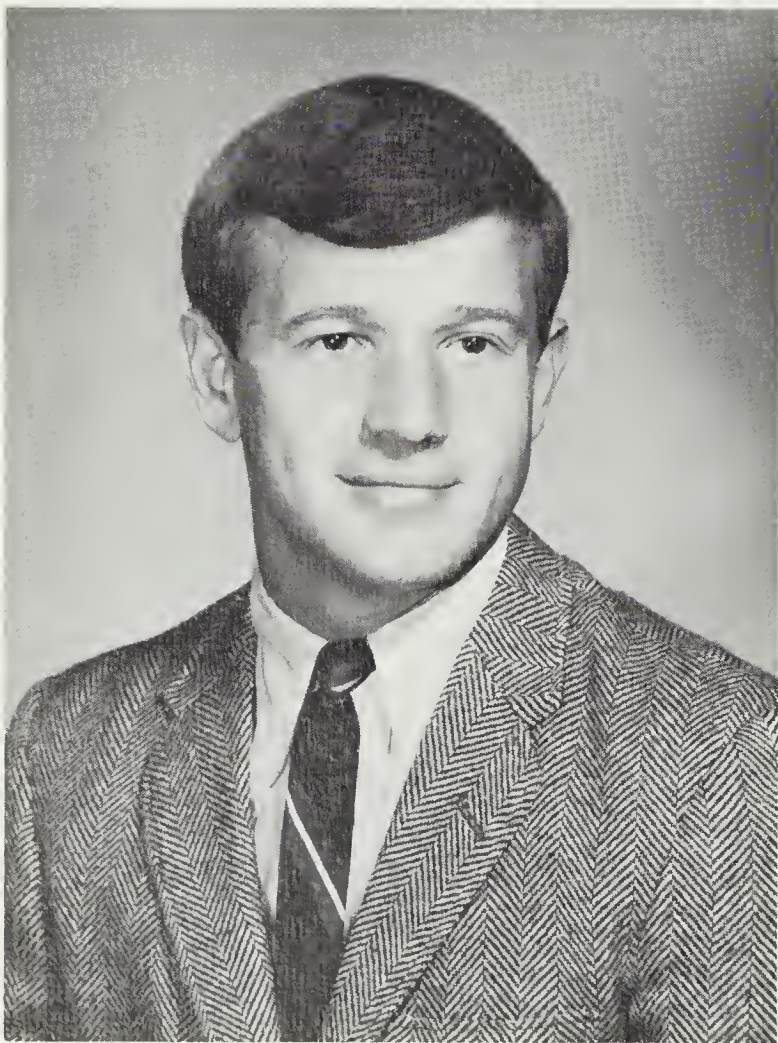

Hard work earns the Senior Class second place for their Homecoming float.

ABOVE: Mr. Mullins attends to classroom business!

Interested, Helpful People

Because of your sincere interest in and encouragement to our class, we the SENIOR CLASS of 1968 pause to honor you. For your helpfulness and understanding as a teacher, friend, coach, and adviser, we proudly dedicate the 1968 Cavalier to you.
DONALD RILEY MULLINS.

The Challenge To Achieve

The Varsity cheerleaders try a new formation.

The S. C. A. works for the student body--by playing records in the lunch blocks.

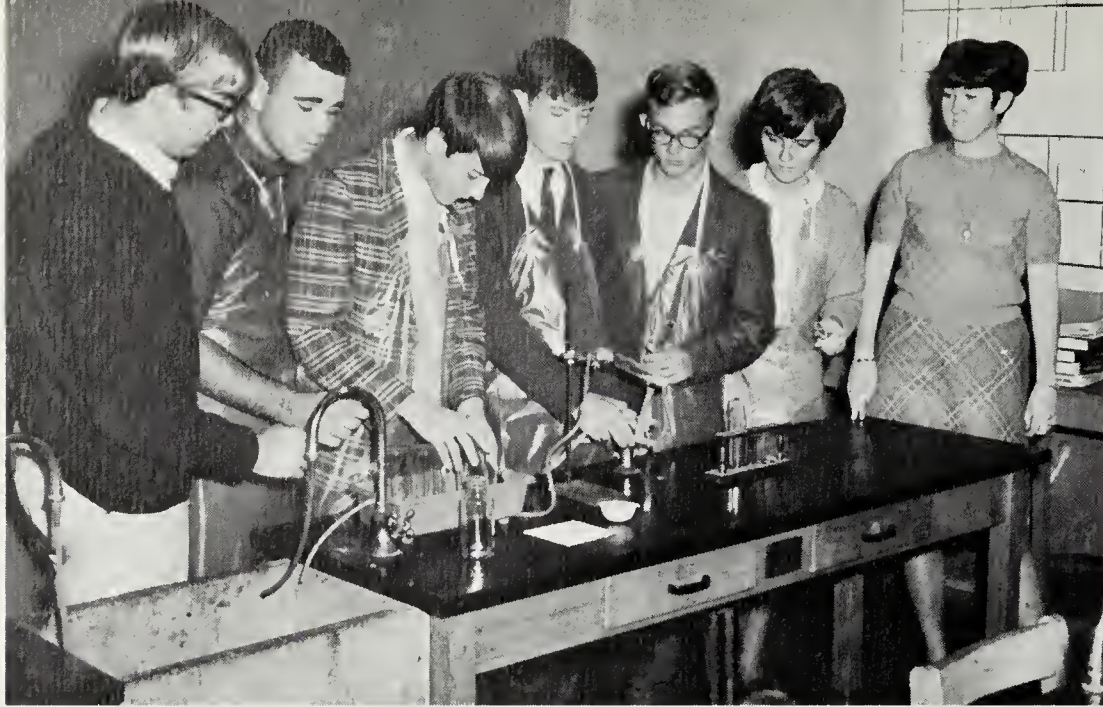

Has everyone finished his typing jobs?

The sideline comes alive as the Dukes score.

Work in class money making projects teaches students to accept responsibilities.

The Willingness To Accept Responsibility

Students use modern business machines in office practice class.

Competition In Mind And Body

Mike tries for a goal.

Tense moments for the Dukettes.

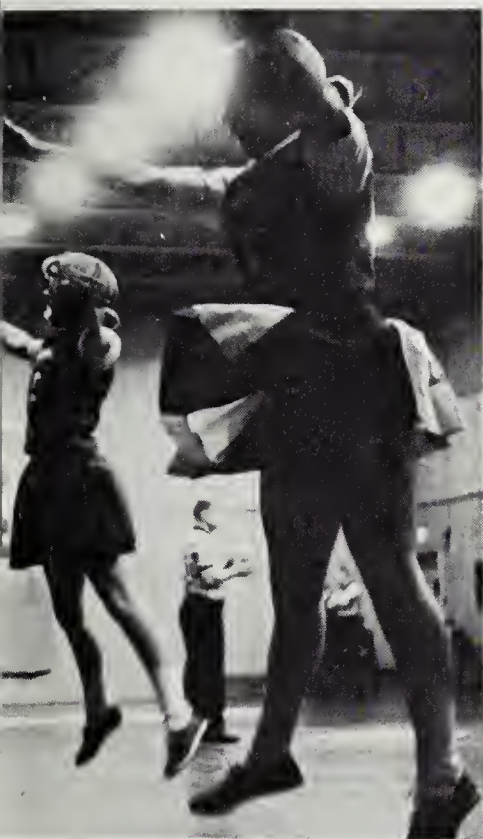

Seconds before a goal.

Boy, this is a hard crossword puzzle!

The high-spirited cheerleaders of G.H.S.

Quiet moments before school are useful in finishing up homework!

The Dukes struggle to get extra yardage.

Dutton pauses on the sideline before again charging for the Dukes.

Freedom To Explore And Express

Group bands explore the field of music.

The gym is often the scene of after game dances.

Lasting friendships are formed between classes.

TOP: Students express themselves through their creative abilities.
 ABOVE: Donna Pitts--Homecoming Queen.
 RIGHT: Exploring life.
 BELOW: Students and teachers exchange ideas in the halls of G. H. S.

Cooperation leads to achievement--
"Three Coins in the Fountain."

Our Dukes are red hot!

Gloucester High band on the move.

Now really, is this co-operation?

"Ice-O-Late Indians" wins first place in the Homecoming Parade.

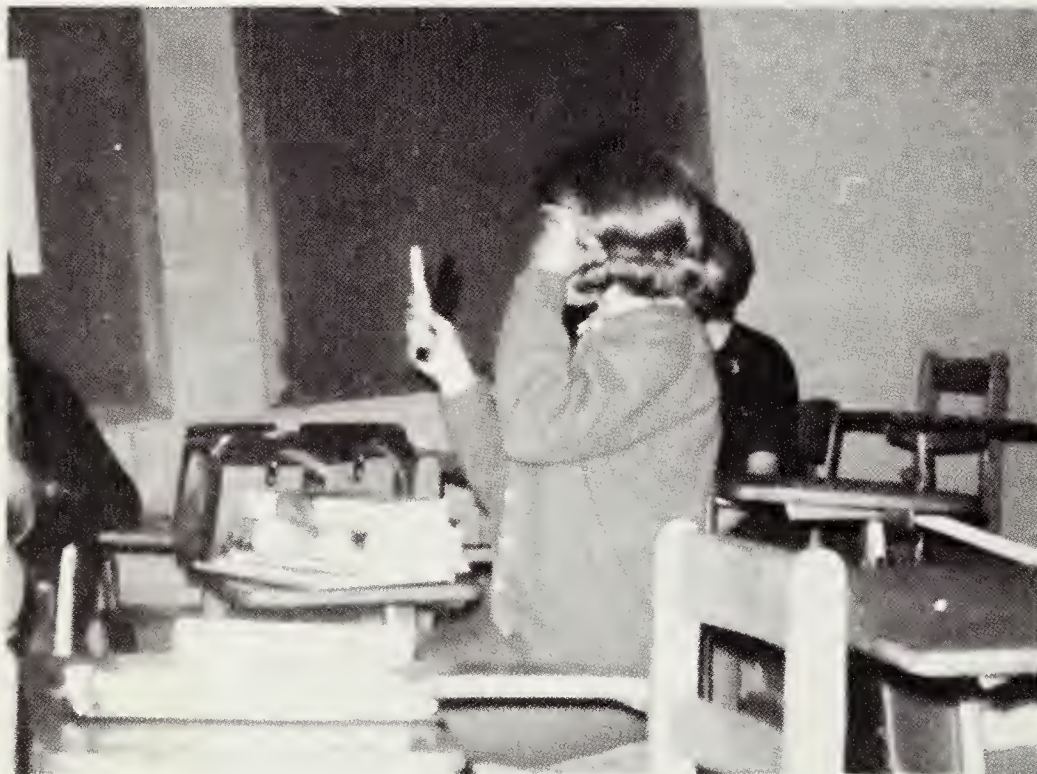

Senior cheerleaders--Marlene, Karen, and RaNaye.

One doesn't find such goodies in the library every day.

A Proper Balance Between Work And Play

Here Rests The Spirit Of G.H.S.

ALMA MATER

We sing our Alma Mater
And praise thy glorious name.
We join in mighty chorus
To laud thy halls of fame.
Sing hail to Thee, Sing hail to Thee
Loud let your voices cry
With loyal adoration
For dear old Gloucester High
We'll fill our hearts with gladness
And never shall it die.

FIGHT SONG

Oh, we will fight, fight,
fight for Gloucester,
Oh, we will fight on to the end.
Oh, we will fight, fight,
fight for Gloucester,
Never to give in.
And when the Dukes march on
in triumph,
Victory in their sight;
Stand and hear our loyal cheer for the Red and White.

ORGANIZATIONS

GLOUCESTER

S.C.A. Officers

Van Markham, parliamentarian; Jan Conner, secretary; Rannie Boyd, vice-president; Craig Loveland, president; Karen Bond, reporter; Wayne Riley, treasurer.

The S.C.A. strives to promote interest, leadership, understanding, and honor throughout the student body. This year the S.C.A. again had a weekly broadcast over WDDY, sponsored music in the lunch blocks, published a student handbook and formed an Interclub Council. In February, the campaigns and elections were held and later an installation program was held.

S.C.A. Council

Beta Officers

Janis Woodard, reporter; Marlene Smoot, secretary; Ellen Cary Dunn, president; Mary Jo Shackelford, vice-president; Wayne Riley, treasurer.

The Beta Club is composed of sophomores, juniors, and seniors who portray the qualities of leadership, outstanding character, and academic achievement. Among the varied activities the club participated in, this year, it sponsored Ruth Luoma for state office at the 1968 Virginia Beta Convention held in Roanoke, and it sponsored the May banquet Federation meeting. Its members also wrote to alumni keeping them informed of G.H.S. happenings, and the Club presented its annual scholarship to a Beta senior.

Interact Club

The Interact Club's motto is "Service before self." The Club has carried this out during the year through various pic projects. The "Dukes Dispatch" was lengthened during its second successful year, and as its international project, the Club became the foster parent of a Greek orphan. The officers are Wayne Riley, president; Davis Marshall, vice-president; Huey Newton, secretary; Jim Towell, Treasurer; Col. Fuller, advisor.

Dukes Dispatch Staff

Drama Club

The Drama Club broke its own record for membership this year with two hundred members. The club began the year with high goals. Its main objective was to buy more equipment. The first project was a baby contest. Forty eight baby beauties paraded across the stage and brought in a record earning of almost $600, making it possible to purchase the long needed spot lights. The first play of the season, "Hessie of the Hills," was presented on December 14. This play involved more members of the Club than any performance in G.H.S. history. Following closely on the heels of this play, the Drama Club, in conjunction with the Bible Club, presented the Christmas play "He Who Walks in Love." The big play of the year came in March. It was the Broadway hit, "The Man who came to Dinner," starring Elaine Newton and Greg Donner. The Drama Club also played host to the District Play Festival on March 9 and presented its own one act play "Still Stands the House." This year's officers were; Greg Donner, president; Norma Jordan, vice-president; Elaine Newton, treasurer; Connie Eagle, secretary; Pat Lemon, reporter.

Carolyn Sibley and Sharon Hoell in the nativity scene from the play, "He Who Walks in Love."

Mike Hutcheson makes up Bob Fitchett for his part in "Hessie of the Hills."

D. Rowe, C. Kirschbaum, C. Houk, M. Griffin, E. Hall, G. McNichols, secretary; L. Fary, D. Holmes, secretary; R. Brown.

Office Assistants

The Library Club's overall objective is to promote interest and understanding of our library's facilities both to students and faculty members.

This year the club observed National Book Week by reviewing books in the classroom and sponsoring a tea for the faculty. The club has also worked on several library improvement projects.

The officers are: Ann Sibley, president; Diane Leifer, vice-president; Virginia Hypes, secretary; Linda Proctor, treasurer; Patsy Oliver, reporter; Mrs. Fary, advisor.

Library Club

Senior 4-H Club

David Hayden, reporter; Byron Luoma, vice-president; Gale Handley, treasurer; Ra Naye Robins, secretary; Wayne Fletcher, president, not pictured.

Junior 4-H Club

Debbie Smith, treasurer; Diane Sears, secretary; Debbie Healy, president; Grey Kirtley, vice-president.

Eighth Grade 4-H Club

Marcia Handley, vice-president; Cynthia Smith, president; Kathy Leigh, secretary-reporter; Lynn Rowe, treasurer.

Bible Club

This year G.H.S. Science Club participated in the Virginia Junior Academy of Science held in Roanoke and the Science Fiction Short Story contest sponsored by the club. A field trip was taken by the group, and an Appropriations Committee was also set up to aid any member needing money for research on his annual project. The officers are: Van Markham, president; Byron Luoma, vice-president; Ruth Luoma, secretary; Tommy Dutton, treasurer; Graig Hawkins, parliamentarian; and Mr. Baldwin, adviser.

The Bible Club is the newest organization at G.H.S. composed of over 200 students who are genuinely interested in emphasizing Christian ideals in school life. This year the club in conjunction with Drama Club presented a Christmas play, "He Who Walks in Love", to the school and general public. It also started a Christian Library in study hall and formed a Bible Club Chorale consisting of 16 select voices. The officers are: Donald Belch, president; Sheila Jenkins, 1st vice-president; Brenda Belch, 2nd vice-president; David Belch, reporter; Grace Via, treasurer; Mr. Robins, adviser.

Science Club

F.F.A. Officers

Sam Greene, sentinel; Douglas Oliver, secretary; Bernard Leiffer, president; Evan Van Leeuwen, vice-president; Billy Dutton, reporter; Dennis Walton, treasurer; Mr. Argabright, adviser.

The membership of the F.F.A. grew to 58 members this year. As one of their projects they distributed two Christmas baskets to needy families. They sent a representative to the National F.F.A. Convention in Kansas City and sponsored three boys to the State Convention in Blacksburg. They entered six Federation Contests and took several first places.

Future Farmers Of America

F.H.A. Officers

Ann Sibley, parliamentarian; Shirlene Washer, recording secretary; Suzanne Smoot, vice-president; Charlotte Bledsoe, president; Brenda Dutton, treasurer; Rita Jenkins, corresponding secretary; Linda DeBolt, historian; Marie Rigau, reporter.

The project of the GHS Chapter this year was "Morals and Manners Matter." The Holly Ball, the major money making project and goal, was presented on December 22. The theme was "A Christmas Memory." The officers have been greatly encouraged by the growth in membership and interest in FHA during the past year.

Future Homemakers of America

Choral Club

Membership in the Choral Club reached an all time high of 118 members this year. Under the direction of Mr. Stuart Conner, the club provided musical entertainment at various concerts for the student body and the public.

This year's Pep Club was the largest one in the history of G.H.S. The members of the Pep Club provided the pep and spirit that spurred our teams on to victory. The officers for this year were: Dennis West, president; Whitey Marshall, vice-president; Donna Dowling, secretary; and Gale Handley, treasurer.

Pep Club

Band

There were 80 members in the Gloucester High School Band this year. The band performed in concerts and marched in parades. They won first place in the Urbanna Oyster Festival Parade and received third place honors at the Southeastern Band Festival in Bristol. The band has helped lead school spirit by playing at pep rallies and football games.

Band Officers

Mary Jane Robins, secretary; Donnie Smith, treasurer; Patsy Oliver, drum major; Kenneth Roy, reporter; Harry McFarland, president.

The Dance Band was formed to offer a different type of musical experience to those students whose interests lay in the field of popular and jazz music. The band has played at concerts and for small, private groups.

Dance Band

Mary Alice Rowe, Donna Jenkins, Ethel Haynes, Valerie Jessen, Rose Mary Green. HEAD MAJORETTE: Shirlene Washer.

Majorettes

The Majorettes and Drill Team marched with the band. They performed many interesting routines during the band's half-time shows.

NEWPORT NEWS SHIPBUILDING

BUILDERS OF GOOD SHIPS SINCE 1886

GREAT GRANDFATHERS--GRANDFATHERS--FATHERS--AND SONS OF THE PENINSULA THROUGH THEIR DEDICATED EFFORTS HAVE ESTABLISHED THE REPUTATION OF THE NEWPORT NEWS SHIPYARD AS THE WORLD'S LEADER IN THE BUILDING OF GREAT SHIPS OF OUTSTANDING QUALITY.

PRODUCTION OF MORE THAN 400 SHIPS HAS BROUGHT IN AN INCOME OF OVER TWO AND ONE-QUARTER BILLION DOLLARS TO THESE FOUR GENERATIONS OF SHIPBUILDERS.

THE SHIPYARD IS PROUD OF ITS CONTRIBUTION TO THE ECONOMY OF THE PENINSULA AND OF THE STATE OF VIRGINIA. IT INTENDS TO CONTINUE ITS POLICIES FOR THE BETTERMENT OF THE LIFE OF ITS EMPLOYEES AND THEIR FAMILIES--AND PLEDGES THAT IT WILL ALWAYS BE.--

WITHIN OUR GRASP

Today, we reach for worlds we hardly dreamed of . . . yesterday.

And wherever we reach—below the seas, beyond the stars—there is electricity. A vital force—meeting challenges, creating careers, translating dreams into reality.

AUTOGRAPHS

Evan,

Remember all the good times we've had in English.

Friends always,

Carley

Evan,

Best of luck to a real nice guy. Remember the fun we had on Bus
29! Best of luck at Y.H.S.
& in future years.

Love,

Judy Chenault

Evan,

Best of luck to a wild but a pretty nice guy. Remember all the wild times we had on Bus 29, they were really something. May success and happiness always come your way. Have fun this summer and I will see you next year.

Love

Nancy G.

Evan,

Best wishes to a pretty great guy.
Remember the days on bus 29.

Esther
